

Flexible employee support with OH Direct

Support your workforce to thrive with occupational health expertise on-demand.

OH Direct allows you to easily purchase a range of services and products online to help you support the health and wellbeing of your staff.

There are no tie-ins or contracts, and you can choose to create an account with us or simply check-out as a guest.

Management advice referrals

A core service we provide is management advice referrals. Using our occupational health portal, managers can request professional advice and refer employees into relevant services to support with scenarios such as a return to work or advice with workplace adjustments.

Other available products

Beyond management referrals, explore a diverse range of products designed to support your staff's year-round health. From health screenings and flu vouchers to training videos and ergonomic equipment, we've got your workplace health and safety needs covered.
